ASRS E-Communications to members!

May 21, 2012

In response to feedback from our members, the Arizona State Retirement System is in the process of sending timely electronic communications via email. We are excited about this new cost-effective method of communicating with our members. To date, we've connected with more than 26,000 members and we're just getting started!

If you haven't received an e-communication from us yet, keep watching your inbox! You'll know it's from us when you see "Your ASRS Pension News" in the subject line. The ASRS is using email address provided by members that are currently on file with the agency.

More introductory e-communications will be sent to members over the next several weeks. Later this summer, periodic electronic newsletters will be distributed, including news for active and retired members, legislative updates and more. Members won't be bombarded with email, just important periodic updates about your retirement system.

To ensure you receive the news and information you need, please take a moment to verify that we have your preferred email address on file.

To update your preferred email address, please follow these simple steps:

1. Log onto the ASRS website at www.azasrs.gov
2. Click on the Login Here button located at the bottom of our home page.
3. Log into your personal homepage. If you have not yet created a personal login, please take a moment to look at the "Guide to Online Registration" document conveniently located on that page to take you through this simple process.
4. Once you are logged into your personal ASRS homepage, you will be able to update your preferred email address as well as update the other your contact information.

While you are there, we hope you will take a moment to look around at all the tools, services and information now available to you in our secure, password-protected website. At the ASRS we are continually seeking ways to provide pertinent information and convenient services to you via our website - available to you online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

It is part of our commitment to provide service excellence to all our members!
